Notes

Recorded in Seattle at Reciprocal Recording for $600.

1st Original Pressing.

The release is on white vinyl limited to 1000 copies and "some" included a Nirvana/Sub Pop poster. Some copies might have a slight dark smudging on the vinyl which is normal. The vinyl may not be perfectly white and have faint black smudges, as sometimes bits of different color get into the mix, or get stuck in the machines from previous pressings.

"some" copies include a folded poster, some were used for promotion, with a press kit or subpop singles club promotion card.

Jason Everman did not actually play any guitar on the album but at the time was playing live with the band, thus his name was included in the credits. {He also paid the $606, for the band's recording time at Jack Endino's studio, as the other band members did not have the cash at the time.}
